Linocut printmaking workshop

With Brigid Mulligan

Hosted By Connemara West
& Twisted Lane Productions

This event is made possible by support from the Arts Office of Galway County Council

Comhairle Chontae na Gaillimhe
Galway County Council

Discover the technique of relief printmaking.

Learn a new skill, look at materials, processes and have multiple prints to take home with you.

This course is designed to suit all ages. The class will create unique designs and transfer images onto soft lino before explore cutting tools and techniques. For younger participants there will be premade lino blocks with a Halloween theme to create their own prints, cards, bookmarks etc.
